Honoring some of our Senior Members

Harry O. Bright Jr.

Harry O. Bright Jr. is the quintessential example of Commitment to Community, and it's not hyperbole to state that his accolades are far too many to mention in this brief statement: author of the first sports book to be translated in the Cambodian language (also translated into French and used in French speaking countries in Africa), international track star, Rotarian, motivational speaker, Army veteran, Hall of Famer, concert violinist, and AVID golfer and PROUD member of the NNGA and NNGA New York Chapter.

The NNGA-NY Harry O. Bright, Jr. Scholarship Fund can only attempt to reflect the work and character of a true New York treasure.

Lee Otis Wood

Lee's love for golf is well known. He has been an active member of the NNGA for over 25 years. Lee and his wife, Phyllis McCarley Wood, reside in New Rochelle, New York.

Billy Helm

Billy and his wife has operated and owned one of the longest standing Black owned cosmetic companies in America, Vera Moore Cosmetics, for 43 years and counting.

Robert Davern aka "Chief"

Chief retired as the head Chief of Rikers Island Correctional facility. Chief served 35 years and upon his retirement in 2006 a building was named at the facility in honor of his exceptional service and dedication.
